

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law is too weak. I am against the imposition of the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers for the purpose of advertising.